

TRANSPORT TO MACQUARIE UNIVERSITY

In 2009, the Macquarie University railway station is scheduled to open on campus. Located on the new Chatswood to Epping rail line, the station will connect the campus to the CityRail network's North Shore and Northern Lines. For more information see www.cityrail.nsw.gov.au.

Bus services to and from Macquarie University are provided by the State Transit Authority and by private bus companies. Some pick up and set down within the University grounds, others at the nearby Macquarie Shopping Centre, a short walk from the University. The following table lists services which pick up and set down within the University grounds.
